

THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Mr. Charles H. Davis
1501 Alcoa Building
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219

Dear Chuck:

It meant a great deal to have your nice note concerning my new appointment as DDCI. I will give it the best I have; much is at stake in the new job. The last 18 months or so have been rough ones for us. Now we have a new future lying ahead, new guidelines to adjust to, and new opportunities to create.

We enjoy our rather frequent visits with Al and hope that the future will permit occasional get-togethers with you as well. We don't get to Pittsburgh as often as we would like; when we do, we are usually booked pretty solid visiting with Mom and Dad--neither of whom is particularly well at the moment.

Thanks again for your nice letter. All the best.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
